Forecast for Sunday 15 May 2022

Weather: Chilly start to the day but good sunny spells soon recovering temperatures towards late morning. Most dry through to midday, then and increasing chance of showers developing from the south through the afternoon and evening, potentially heavy with the risk of hail and thunder, chiefly across southern peaks such as Ben Alder.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: Almost 100% at first, becoming 90% for the afternoon.

Low cloud and visibility: Good or very good becoming moderate or poor in showers, very poor within cloud which infrequently lowers across the peaks in showers.
